“Le Terme di Abano e Montegrotto”

Surrounded by the Euganean Hills, the “Abano and Montegrotto spas” are the largest and oldest spas in Europe, specializing in thermal mud-balneotherapy treatments. The Euganean Thermal Basin has a millennia-old history that dates back to the cult of Aponus, the god of thermal and healing waters, from which the city of Abano derives its name. After 2,000 years, these places remain the ideal destination for health and well-being.

Numerous hotels, each with its own internal spa, specialize in mud therapy and inhalation treatments. In addition to wellness areas, they offer indoor and outdoor thermal pools where you can relax in the warmth of the water.
